Day of Change Rescheduled - THIS Thursday

The Day of Change was rescheduled due to the snow day on February 12. It will now take place in the gym at TCS on Thursday, February 28 from 9am-3pm. It is a Bullying Awareness day for grades 7-12 with Unity Christian High School joining us. There will be pizza provided for lunch.

New Parent Interviews have started!

This week we continue to interview new families to TCS. We accepted another new family last week and have several tours & interviews lined up for this week as well.

Request for Board Nominees

The spring society meeting is an important transition point for the TCS Board of Directors. At this meeting, exiting board members are replaced by the new members who are voted in. With this transition approaching we are asking that you prayerfully consider individuals who may be a good fit for the TCS Board of Directors and submit any names to kristawesterneng@hotmail.com by March 8, 2019. Thank you for your consideration!

Sports Fan Day!

Break out your favourite sports jersey! This Friday, March 1st, Student Council will be hosting SPORTS FAN DAY! Dress up as a fan of your favourite sports team and show your team spirit.

Save up to 50% on tuition at Unity

Unity Christian High School is reducing its tuition rates effective September 2019. The base rate tuition will be reduced by $1,000 for single students and $2,000 for multiple students. Additionally, for families that will have children in both Christian elementary and High School, we are offering up to a 50% discount on the base tuition rate. At Unity, we believe that as part of the Christian Education family, we must do everything we can to help families continue their investment in their child's Christian education future. Please join us on this journey of faith and consider enrolling at Unity Christian High. For more information, or to arrange a tour of Unity, please contact Pamela Running at (705) 792-6915. With thanks for your continued support of UCHS.
